REPORTORIAL NOTES.

SENATOR JOHN CLEM is in town.

SENATOR VOORHEES proposes to summer at Mount Desert.

SENATOR WALLACE says Hancock's letter of acceptance will be brief.

COL. ROBERT G. INGERSOLL and family will spend July on the North Shore, Cape Ann.

SENATOR CARPENTER, of Wisconsin, will pass a month at Narragansett Pier this summer.

SENATOR MORRILL will sail with his family to-day for a four months' journey through Europe.

GEN. ORD, it is reported, will take a year's furlough and then be retired, Gen. Schofield succeeding him in Texas.

THE DEMOCRATS of the third district of Indiana have nominated S. M. Stockstager, of Harrison county, for Representative in Congress.

HENRY A. GARFIELD, one of the General's sons, took the prize for English declamation at St. Paul's School, at Concord, N. H., last week.

SENATOR BAYARD proposes, should his health permit, to visit Ohio and Indiana, as well as Pennsylvania and New York, to do campaign work.

SENATOR BECK will confine his speech-making to Indiana and Ohio. He thinks that Hancock need not by any means give up the idea of carrying Ohio.

COLMEL DELANO, who has disappeared from the public vision since he was Secretary of the Interior, has been made LL. D. by Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio.

GEN. R. L. BEAL has announced himself as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the first district of Virginia, subject to the action of the democratic convention.

WM. E. KENOLIS, son of the democratic candidate for Vice-President, was married recently to Miss Annie E. Fox, a solo-comic vocalist, well known in the Eastern cities.

THE BOSTON HERALD, which is generally classed as independent or independent republican, has determined to support Garfield, pledging itself, however, to tell the truth about the candidates.

ELIZABETH ENGLISH, the granddaughter of Hon. Wm. H. English, the democratic candidate for Vice-President, was born March 2, 1878, near Laurel, Sussex co., Del., and died in Louisville, Ky., March 7, 1877.

IN A LETTER from United States Minister Andrew D. White, dated at Berlin, June 1, he very emphatically says that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for Congress in the Syracuse, New York, district, and cordially advises the re-election of Representative Hiseock.

THE PITTSBURGH, PA., TELEGRAPH says that Hiestor Clymer has withdrawn from the congressional race in Berks county, and that this will insure the nomination of State Senator Daniel Krumentrout, who is a man of marked ability and the democratic leader of the State Senate.

GEN. GARFIELD received last winter a letter from a little West Virginia boy asking for some missionary money for his class, and the General straightway answered: "My dear little friend, partly for the sake of the missionary cause, and partly as a tribute to a nine-year old boy who can write so handsome a letter as you have done, I enclose $1 to aid you in your contributions."

Reorganization of District Courts.

One of the very important measures made a law by the last Congress was that relating to the reorganization of the District courts, which contains among its provisions the following: That any justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia holding a term of the circuit court may hold sittings for the trial of such criminal cases depending in the criminal court as the justice presiding therein may assign for that purpose, and may employ the petit juries drawn for such circuit court for such trials; and such sittings may be held during the regular sessions of the criminal court, or, in the recess thereof, during the term of such circuit court; it shall be good cause of principal challenge to any person called to serve as a juror in either of said courts at any time within one year next before his being so called and challenged. And whenever a paper, on which is written the name of any person, shall be drawn from the jury-box, and such person by reason of being challenged, or for any other reason, shall not serve as a juror at the term for or at which he shall have been so drawn, the clerk of the supreme court (unless otherwise ordered by the justice presiding in the court for which such name was drawn) shall replace the said paper in the jury-box, subject to be drawn again.

This bill is republished at the request of many of our readers.

The Corean Market Square Question.

A committee of citizens, including Messrs. Wilson, Burdette, Stone, Detric, Bond, Donaldson, Kahler, Thynson, Luppert, Daly, Cole, Donn and Cook, waited upon the Commissioners this afternoon and entered a formal protest against the purpose of the resolution of the school board in reference to locating the public school building for the Second Division on the Corean market square, and protesting against the diversion of any of the ground of that square from the purpose to which it is dedicated by existing laws. Messrs. S. R. Bond and Wm. A. Cook were spokesmen for the committee, and argued that in its present condition the market on this square yields a large part of the interest on the bond given to Mr. Corean, and requesting that the Commissioners keep it in as good condition as possible for the accommodation of its dealers and patrons until Congress shall, at its next session, take final action on the subject. The committee only asked that nothing be done towards a change in the Corean market square until the bills governing that matter now pending in Congress had been disposed of. It was also argued that the square was totally unfit for school purposes.

Mr. Dent said he never considered it a good location for a school house. He thought a better location could be had further to the northwest. Mr. Morgan concurred in the view as to the unfitness of the location if there were no legal difficulties in the way. His view was that the school house ought never to go there and that it was never contemplated it should. The Commissioners said they would refer the petition to the School Board with the injunction that no further steps be taken in the matter until Congress has passed upon the pending bill.

Some Proposed Improvements.

In addition to the regular funds appropriated for keeping the public buildings and grounds of the Government located in this city in order, the late Congress appropriated also the following sums for the purposes herein named: Repairing the United States Arsenal, $2,000; filling in and improving grounds south of the Executive Mansion, $15,000; improving the reservation adjacent to the Washington monument, $3,000; various minor improvements, $10,000.

Criminal Court To-day.

There was only a short session of the Criminal Court to-day. Judge James occupied the bench and overruled a motion to quash the indictment in the case of Henry D. Kelly for carrying concealed weapons, and also overruled a similar motion in the case of Alice Miller indicted for complicity in pension frauds. The court adjourned till Monday, but no trials will be had.

The Irish Relief Bill.

By National Associated Press.

LONDON, July 3.—The House this morning, in committee, discussed the amendment to the Irish relief bill, and then rose and reported progress. Much comment is made upon the slowness with which Parliament is moving in this pressing matter.

The Earl of Shaftesbury to-day officiated at the unveiling of the statue to Robert Balfour, the founder of Sunday Schools, which has recently been erected on the Thames embankment.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

Fatal Accident on Thirteenth Street.

To-day about noon a white lad, about 14 years of age, named William Parker, had his neck broken by the fall of a pile of lumber in Jackson & Co.'s lumber warehouse, corner of Thirteenth street and Ohio avenue. The facts are as follows: Young Parker and another boy were seen hanging about the lumber yard looking for pigeons and once or twice they were told to go away. About 12 o'clock one of the employees had occasion to go up into the loft, and while looking around among the boards and joists, found the boy Parker under a pile of timbers, which had fallen down across his breast and neck. Instead of extricating the lad, no assistance was rendered him until the police had been notified, and when Officer Thompson arrived it was discovered that the boy was dead, his neck having been broken. His hands were held up as though he had made an effort to push aside the lumber as it fell upon him. He lay in a narrow aisle with boards piled up on either side of him, and it is presumed that in trying to climb up pulled the lumber over on him. After being viewed by the coroner the boy's remains were removed to the Central police station, and his friends, residing on Eighth street, near L. northwest, were notified.

The Republican Committee Chairmanship.

New York, July 3.—Commenting upon the acceptance by Marshall Jewell of the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee, the World to-day says: "It proves that favorite son of Connecticut to be no wiser in 1880 than he was in 1876. The lessons of adversity and the snubs he took of Grant have evidently been thrown away upon him. The more wary members of the committee from under with singular unanimity as soon as it became a question who should take the most conspicuous share of the responsibility of the coming canvass. The chairman of the republican national committee this year will be in the position of a New York director of Italian opera, whose lot it has been from old known to be the first to lose all his money and then to be harmoniously blackguarded by everybody. Mr. Jewell's commercial intellect has long been generally supposed to be of an order much superior to his political or his general intellect. This fact is thought to have been demonstrated by the relations which he sustained when sent to reside at the Court of St. Petersburg, to a certain contract for army biscuit made with the Imperial Russian Government. It is not clear, therefore, that Mr. Jewell's colleagues have made a point if they fancy that he is prepared to pour out his treasure like water to refresh even the thirsty state of his residence.

The World says: "Ex-Governor Jewell may, perhaps, prove to be a skillful organizer for the republicans, but nobody has supposed him comparable to the late Zachariah Chandler, who so ably managed the canvass of Mr. Hayes. Mr. Jewell has been rather out of favor since his return from the St. Petersburg mission, but he may nevertheless do good service at the head of the Republican National Committee."

A Revolution in Maryland Politics.

Ex-Postmaster General Creswell says that a revolution in the politics of Maryland may be expected at the fall elections in that state, which will probably result in the gaining of two additional Congressmen by the republicans. The proposition on which the gain is to be made is from prominent democrats in Baltimore, who have become dissatisfied with the present democratic management, and have offered to arrange matters so that a very large number of illegally registered voters will be thrown from the registration list, which will seriously affect the democratic majority in the district of which Baltimore forms an important part, particularly the Fourth and Fifth districts. As an evidence of the disgust of the democratic management in that state, Col. Edwin Webster, who was Collector of the Port of Baltimore under President Johnson, and Frederick Stone, who represented the Fifth district in Congress in 1872, both avowed democrats, were announced to address the Garfield meeting at Baltimore Wednesday night, but, owing to pressure of other business, did not attend, but sent letters expressing in strongest terms their heartfelt support of the republican nomination for President.

A Serious Wound.

New York, July 3.—Policeman Hugh Bruton was called last night to the tenement No. 338 East Twenty-fifth street, where he found Margaret Lenahan bleeding from a stab wound in the right side of the neck. Two little children were trying to stop the flow of blood, while their father, David Lenahan, sat by unconcernedly. The woman was taken to Bellevue Hospital unconscious. Policeman Bruton asked Lenahan who had injured his wife. He replied with an oath that he did not know and did not care. His hands were covered with blood. The children said he had strangled his mother with a piece of broken beer key. He was arrested. Mrs. Lenahan will probably die.

A Large Shipping Business.

New York, July 3.—The Anchor Line despatched to-day five steamers to Europe—the Devonia, for Glasgow; the Australia, for London; the Columbia, for Barrow-in-Furness; the Scotia, for London; and the Lady Lyett, for Avonmouth, and the Lady Lyett, for Avonmouth—each carrying a large cargo of American produce.

British Troops Ordered Out.

By National Associated Press.

LONDON, July 3.—A dispatch from Candahar states that a British brigade, composed of all arms, has been ordered to move from that point, on the Girish, to support Sher Ali against Ayoub Khan, who reached Ferah from Herat a few days ago. The renewal of fighting in Afghanistan is held to demonstrate that the questions of British relations to that country is about as far from a settlement as ever, and that in all probability the present ministry will soon find a new edition of the Afghan war on its hands in its attempts to impose a ruler upon the country.

Germans Declaring for Hancock and English.

New York, July 3.—The German American Independent Citizens' Association of the Twentieth Assembly District met last night and resolved to support Hancock and English and to form a campaign club.

Fighting Their Minister.

Messrs. Cook and Cole to-day filed a bill for Rev. Alfred B. Wilson, pastor of the Ebenezer M. E. church, ordered, against the trustees of the church for a mandatory injunction to compel them to allow him to occupy the pulpit of the same to conduct its religious services. The bill states that he was regularly appointed to this charge by the last M. E. conference and that the trustees have locked the doors against him and refuse him admission. It seems the trustees are dissatisfied with him and want their former pastor back.

Equity Court Proceedings.

In the Equity Court to-day, Judge James, the restraining order in Cahill vs. Cahill was continued on bond being given; injunction was refused in McIntosh vs. Cassell; a restraining order was granted in English vs. Heany, returnable July 7th; Hibernia Building Association vs. Gibbons, on hearing.

Pumps With Good Water.

The District Code.

Each member of the sub-committee of the Senate District Committee, to whom was referred the proposed new District code, when they went home at the adjournment of Congress took along a copy of the pending bill, which they will read and revise, and will meet here next November to compare notes and put the bill in shape to be introduced as early as possible next session.

Going West.

Adjutant-General Drum will leave this evening for Fort Leavenworth. During his absence General Breck, the senior Assistant Adjutant-General on duty, will act in his place.
